

Society for Computers and Law (SCL) Training – Internal Booking Request Form

Please use this form to acquire internal sign-off for attendance at the event. Please refer to the relevant event page on the SCL website or email hello@scl.org if you require further information or would like to book a place

Event details

Event Title: SCL IT Disputes Group Masterclass: Cryptocurrency and Blockchain Disputes

Date: Tuesday 24 September 2019

Time: 1.00 pm - 5.00 pm (registration from 12.30 pm)

Venue: TBC, Central London

Name(s) of speakers/trainers

Co-Chairs:

Allan Murray, Senior Associate, iLaw

Sarah Comani, Legal Counsel, Bitfinex

Speakers:

Chris Wray, Legal Counsel, Mattereum

David McIlwaine, Partner, Pinsent Masons

Matthew Lavy, 4 Pump Court

David Quest QC, 3VB

Course aims and objectives

The session will focus on IT Disputes – specifically cryptocurrency and blockchain.

Session 1 - Problems with, and challenges for, businesses in the Blockchain and Cryptocurrency sector.

Session 2 - Overview of legal issues and likely causes of action and the appropriate dispute resolution mechanism to be adopted.

Session 3 - An examination of aspects of the UK Jurisdiction Taskforce's legal statement regarding the status of cryptoassets, distributed ledger technology and smart contracts under English law,

Session 4 - Looking at further aspects of the legal statement

The event will also include opportunities for Q&A and networking with speakers and delegates.

www.scl.org

Who Should Attend

- Tech Lawyers (in private practice and in-house, associate to partner level) working in, or with an interest in, the blockchain and cryptocurrencies sector
- Tech sector professionals & managers working in this sector or with an interest in the topic

Reasons to Attend

SCL Masterclasses are designed for those working at associate level or above as they provide a deeper dive into the subject, high-level learning and discussion. Speakers and panellists are thought-leaders working within the relevant sector and with an in-depth knowledge of the topic.

Debate and discussion among the knowledgeable audience will add depth and additional insight to the speaker presentations and you will gain valuable practical takeaways to apply to your daily practice.

Identified learning outcomes

To have a greater knowledge of the topic discussed.

Understanding of content in key materials (slides, reports, notes, recommendations etc.)

Cost to delegates (if applicable)

The cost of attendance at this half-day masterclass is £125 + VAT (£150) for SCL members and £195 + VAT (£234) for non-members.

Fees include:

- Event materials – soft copy summary of the Key Takeaways and PDF copies of presentations slides (please note that we are only able to share slides with the speaker's express permission)
- Refreshments

www.scl.org